A Mexican Wall? Those who fail to learn from history are bound to repeat it. Check out the history around the current 45 other walls that have been built to solve problems. How well did these work? Knowledge is power and powerful and enlightenment is enlightening. I am so bored with the ignorant and ignorance. People can't figure out why I hate leaving the house. Lol.

Agreed. Didn't a "Great Republican Hero" say 'Tear down that wall'?

In a truly arrogant stance, the wall that the U.S. creates will, in some way, be better than the others. It won't cost a fortune, it won't cost more human suffering, it will build more economic stability in the region and most importantly Mexicans will get the message there is only one way into the US. Finally, it won't be a huge embarrassment to a country that claims to be a world leader that we resorted to building the next Great Wall because we forgot how to solve problems with logic, sanity, humanity and common sense. I am done preaching... for today. This topic just grinds my gears.

Ok. Here goes nothing. I am announcing my candidacy for the Republican nomination for President of the United States. I am not Republican, but I want 5 seconds of fame, too.

And the winner of last night's Republican President Debate....Hillary Rodham Clinton. Great job, FoxNews! Reality TV at its best.

Ok. I'd like to vote to bring Christie and Bush back if we could drop this clown. How, in the all out hell, is he still relevant to anyone with an eighth of a brain. Have we now lowered ourselves to a discussion on who is blacker? That's important to whom for what reason? Someone please explain. I am not even going to comment on the other points he tried to make.

Ben Carson just proved that stupid crosses all color lines. His assertion that prison proves homosexuality is a choice, is a level of stupid that is almost funny if he weren't running for the presidency. People will vote for him, so it may also prove that stupid is contagious.

I literally just "unfollowed" him behind his recent comments. This is not his arena! Have a seat Ben Carson.. I'm losing respect.

I wonder how men would feel if a panel of women wanted to discuss and then stop treatment for erectile dysfunction and not include them. Interesting.

Just waiting to see which candidate is going to say that if those disabled people or the workers at the party had guns, none of this would have happened. Wait for it....

It is a fact that guns do not kill, people with guns, kill. Let's not forget that policies allowing every crazed idiot on the planet to purchase their own personal arsenal bares some responsibility in the kill as well. A pen full of ink is more dangerous than a gun full of bullets. Both are deadly. These are facts.

Is this the America we want? Is this the "return to greatness" Trump is talking about? Some of you won't care until you are in the group that is targeted for removal. Mexicans, LGBT, Muslims, Immigrants, etc. The absence of concern happened not that long ago in Germany and we all see how that turned out. Wake up, America!

If you write at work like you text and write on Facebook, I can guarantee you that you won't be rising the corporate ladder any time soon. You will be holding that ladder for someone else who still understands the importance speaking and writing professionally. Pay attention, people. We are slipping. Someone is always watching and listening to you.

I am looking at the person in the exit row. I am completely not convinced he understood a word the flight attendant said and from the looks of his upper body, I am going to have to step in, in the event of an emergency landing. Lol.

Yes, but I will have to knock him unconscious in the event of a water landing. I am prepared to do that early. Lol.
